

Joel Pett

Joel Pett, winner of the 2000 Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartoons, has been the editorial cartoonist at the Lexington Herald-Leader since 1984. His cartoons have appeared in hundreds of newspapers and magazines nationwide, including The New York Times, The Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, The Philadelphia Daily News, The Boston Globe, The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, USA Today, Chicago Sun-Times, George, Business Week, Ms. and Discover.

Joel Pett travelled in over 30 foreign countries on 5 continents. He has conducted three overseas seminars on editorial cartooning as a guest speaker of the US State Department.

In addition to winning the Pulitzer in 2000, Pett is also the 3-time finalist for Pulitzer Prize for cartooning. He was the 1995 winner of the Global Media Award for cartoons on population issues. He has served as president of the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists.

Pett's cartoon collections are available in four paperback collections, the latest being "Just Don't Inhale." Joel Pett is proudest of his college intramural golf title.
